their education. Based on this criteria, the amounts awarded ranged from $540.78 and $740.80. The grants were mailed to the student's address currently on file with the school.

7. Students were apprised of the school's plans to distribute the Emergency Financial Aid Grants via email and G Skin & Beauty Institute COVID information web-site. Students were not required to apply for these grants unless they had not filed a FAFSA, in which case an institutional application form whereby students attested to their Title IV funding eligibility was required.
